Certification Programs

ALP – basic certification for legal professionals

Demonstrate your preparedness for the demanding field of law. Become certified as an ALP. This designation is awarded after passing a four-hour, three-part examination. Attaining this goal demonstrates your commitment and aptitude for succeeding in the ever-changing legal environment.

PLS/CLP – advanced certification for legal professionals®

How do your skills compare with the hallmark of a professional? PLS®/CLP® is the designation for lawyers' assistants who want to be identified as exceptional. Certification is received after passing a one-day, four-part examination, which demonstrates not only dedication to professionalism but also acceptance of the challenge to be exceptional. Personal motivation is necessary to attain such a goal.

Professional Paralegal – superior certification for legal professionals

Dare to excel! Be the superior legal assistant/paralegal you want to be! Take the certified professional paralegal exam. Certification is received by passing a one-day, four-part examination, which includes substantive law. Step apart from your peers!
