CHAPTER COMMENTS:

Out with the old and in with the new! April brings showers for May flowers, but this time, it brought LSPL a brand new president—Amy Baker, CP, SCCP!

LSPL is excited to have new blood in the president's chair. We are sure she will bring new ideas and new energy to our chapter. Amy was installed Saturday, April 27, 2019, and took off running with ideas.

We truly enjoyed the 54th Annual Meeting that was held in Spartanburg April 5-7. Five members from LSPL participated. Everything was great! We especially enjoyed the murder mystery which involved our honorary member, Sharon Inman, as the murder victim.

Put on your thinking caps—it is time to plan!

Annual Meeting Report

Annual Meeting 2019 was held in Spartanburg, South Carolina at the Summit Event Center, April 5-7, 2019. There was a two-part CLE focusing on crime scenes and criminal investigations. We really enjoyed this presentation by Spartanburg Police Department. Kudos to the Spartanburg Chapter for their hard work and creativity.

Legal Staff Professionals of the Lowcountry (LSPL) represented with five members, and we participated in the entertainment of the banquet, which was a murder mystery.

We are looking forward to the Summer Meeting in Santee at the Clarke's Inn.
